3. Decide how much to give to each beneficiary

You will need to decide which gifts will go to whom in your will. You can give a specific item (e.g. a family heirloom), a fixed cash amount, or a percentage of your estate (calculated when all other costs and gifts have been taken into account).

4. Wishes for your funeral, burial, cremation, or memorial service

In your will, you may wish to include any particular wishes for your funeral or memorial service, such as whether you want to be buried or cremated, and where you'd like the service to be held.

5. Name of the charity to which you wish to make a gift

Gifts in will play a vital role in enabling us to help older people with the challenges we face in later life. If you would like to remember Age UK in your will, please pass the details below to your solicitor:
